The Journey

From the turquoise waters of the Isles of Scilly to Scotland's rugged coastlines, every stop is a blend of natural beauty and rich history. Stroll through Treviso's subtropical Abbey Gardens, explore grand estates, and savor the serenity of the Hebridean Islands—all aboard a ship small enough to reach hidden gems larger vessels can't.

Whether you love gardens, wildlife, history, whiskey, or simply dream of sailing past storybook landscapes, this voyage has something for you. With only 100 guests, enjoy an intimate, welcoming atmosphere that turns fellow travelers into friends.

Onboard, indulge in delicious kosher cuisine crafted by our celebrated culinary team—a tradition of excellence spanning 30 years. Every meal is a celebration.

Enhancing the Jewish experience, join Dr. Henry Abramson for captivating lectures, our signature KRC meaningful Shabbat programming and inspiring Torah shiurim.

This is more than a cruise—it's an immersive journey of exploration, relaxation, and connection through the heart of the British Isles.

The MS Hebridean Sky features 50 exceptionally spacious and well-designed suites, each with a seating lounge area. Many suites have private balconies with tinted, sliding glass doors, perfect for enhanced viewing opportunities. The luxurious atmosphere is accentuated by wood paneling and brass, reminiscent of a private yacht.

Passenger accommodations are spread over five decks, with all suites offering outside views. Each suite provides considerable comfort with an ensuite bathroom featuring a marble-topped vanity unit, sink, walk-in shower, large wardrobe, dressing table with mirror and stool, and excellent storage. Additional amenities include a mini-fridge, flat-screen television, telephone, refillable water bottles, robes, slippers, programmable electronic safe, hairdryer, assorted Molton Brown toiletries, air-conditioning, and heating.

The suites on each deck have their own color theme, with soft hues and blended tones enhancing the traditional maritime style, making the accommodations inviting and relaxing. Beds can be configured as either double or twin. The impressive Island Suite on the Explorer Deck features an extra-large balcony stretching the length of the suite and includes complimentary laundry.

Your Ship

The MS Hebridean Sky

The MS Hebridean Sky is a 118-passenger, all-suite vessel, renowned for its spacious accommodations, public areas, and outside decks. The atmosphere on board is like a private yacht or country hotel, with music in the lounge or bar after dinner, talks from our onboard team, and informative port briefings from your Cruise Director or Expedition Leader. After a day of exploration ashore, you will return to the comfort and peace of a well-run and exceedingly comfortable ship.

Your Space: The MS Hebridean Sky offers spacious and finely decorated public rooms, including a large lounge for daily briefings, talks, and educational programs, bar and piano lounge, dining room, library, observation deck and sun lounge, hairdresser and spa, and clinic.

Life Onboard: At KRC Expeditions, we focus on creating a community while exploring our planet. Instead of a mega ship with over 4,000 passengers and impersonal service, join us on an all-kosher, intimate expedition vessel. Here, a relaxing atmosphere, delicious glatt-kosher cuisine, high-quality service, and attention to detail are the order of the day.

We foster a warm and convivial environment, akin to a private yacht or country hotel, where you can learn about the wonders of nature, culture, and ancient civilizations with like-minded people. Guest speakers and informative port briefings from our expedition leaders and cruise director enhance the experience, making any voyage aboard this wonderful vessel memorable and joyful. After a day ashore, return to the comfort and peace of an exceedingly comfortable ship.
